

Geometry for the fanbeam transform. The line $L(\alpha, \xi)$ connects the source and the detector, both rotated by the angle α , at detector offset ξ . The values R and R_E denote the distances from the emitter to the detector and origin, respectively, while W denotes the detector width.